

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS

DEGREE COURSE: BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS BA

SUBJECT: COMPANY AND BUSINESS LAW

LECTURER: STEFANO MAZZOTTA

Email address: stefano.mazzotta@uniecampus.it

OBJECTIVES

This course aims to provide students with the knowledge of the main concepts of Italian business law, corporate law and bankruptcy law. Purpose of the course is to train students to the identification of the conditions and effects of the rules to be applied to specific cases, providing awareness about the rules relating to private economic initiative, to its organization and to their relations with third parties.

CONTENTS

The course will address, in particular, the issues related to the following areas:

- business law
- corporate law
- bankruptcy law

ASSESSMENT

Written exam: multiple choice and open questions

RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOKS

- Iudica G. and P. Zatti, "Language and Rules of Italian Private Law: An Introduction", latest ed., Cedam
- Lena J.S. and U. Mattei, "Introduction to Italian Law", Wolters Kluwer, 2002
- Carone M. and De Nicola A., "Italian Business law", Egea, 2008
- Carone M. and De Nicola A., "Italian company law", Egea, 2014

- Piacentini V., "Italian Civil Code translated in English" (from art. 2325 to article 2510), IPSOA, 2014